Requirements

- ❖ A prospecting member must be a full-blooded elf that worships Sehanine Moonbow.
- ❖ A member should make a vow, enforced wit a geas, to follow the edicts of the cult of Sehanine Moonbow to ever protect the elves, and never refuse aid to elves (with the exception of drow).
- ❖ Before joining, one needs to have been a member of the Eliastriair for at least 1 year.

Initial Costs

- ❖ A prospecting member needs one influence point with the Cult of Sehanine Moonbow.
 - Divine casters of Sehanine Moonbow are more easily accepted. A character that casts divine spells granted by her (i.e. a cleric, paladin, or contemplative) is considered to have a favor with the Cult of Sehanine Moonbow for the purpose of joining only.
- ❖ It takes a considerable time for the cult to accept an aspiring member. The member is closely observed and tested with riddles and trick questions for an extended period. Only after the member succeeds will the cult accept her. This period takes 1 TU during which the aspiring member cannot leave Lemrathen.

Recurring Costs

- ❖ A member must spend 4 TU each year to attend the gathering of elves at Lemrathen.

Benefits

- ❖ Members are well liked by the clergy of Sehanine Moonbow, as described in the chapter 'Divine Spellcasting in Sunndi', and can petition for spells to be cast. Spells of up to 8th level are available.
- ❖ A member has a permanent influence point with the clerics of Sehanine Moonbow, which can be used to reduce the cost of castings spells.
- ❖ Members gain a +2 circumstance bonus to Diplomacy checks with Sunndian elves.
- ❖ Members have a better standing than others with the fey that live in Menowood, Rieuwood, and the Vast Swamp. They gain a +2 circumstance bonus to Diplomacy checks with Sunndian fey.
- ❖ Members are allied with and well liked by the People of the Testing, including the elves of the Lendore Isles. Members get a +2 circumstance bonus to Diplomacy bonus with any elves that belong to the People of the Testing.
